

ES107546

Other, Algorfa, Alicante

30,000€

We are pleased to offer the traspaso for a very popular and well know restaurant in the Spanish village of Algorfa. Previously known as The Vestry and more recently 1614 Steakhouse, the restaurant has been trading very successfully for over a 10 years during which time the restaurant had developed an excellent reputation and a loyal customer base, earning a maximum rating of 5/5 on sites such as TripAdvisor. The business is being sold with all the fixtures and fittings to continue trading as a restaurant, and is available with immediate effect, the restaurant is capable of having 45 covers, with a separate private dining room offering space for an additional 4 covers and separate Ladies and Gents bathrooms. The building has a variety of rooms available, including the main dining area, with a large bar area, a spacious bright kitchen, two separate food preparation areas, and a large storage area. There are additional rooms at the rear of the restaurant which could be used as living accommodation, including a separate living area with one bedroom and a good sized bathroom with a full sized walk in shower, therefore there is the possibility of living on the premises if

