Stunning is not a good enough word to describe this villa in the gorgeous Torrequebrada area of Benalmadena. Every inch is immaculately kept and has so many features there is hardly enough space to write about them all. If you are looking for space, privacy, views and accessibility - with a lift going up and down to every floor - in a wonderful location then you just have to look at this Villa. In fact, it really has to be viewed to be totally appreciated. It takes your breath away. It has seven bedrooms and five bathrooms. Three of the bedrooms are in an independent apartment. It is an amazing family home with a games room, bar with disco lights, gym, sauna and a cinema room. There is a large private pool and a huge beautifully manicured landscaped gardens . There are several terraces on every level and a built in outdoor kitchen - perfect for entertaining. It even has a piano in the main atrium. The beautiful beaches of Torrequebrada are just a few minutes away and it is just a short drive to either Benalmadena or Fuengirola. Key Features...- Sea views from all three levels - Private pool - Independent three bedroom apartment - Lift spanning all three floors -
