An absolute bargain is the only way to describe this fabulous top floor apartment located in the Spanish village of Hurchillo. This unfurnished apartment comprises of a bigger than average American style kitchen opening to a large lounge/diner, a small hall leading to the two double bedrooms and house bathroom. Outside is a comfortable covered balcony leading up to the huge solarium of 53m<sup>2</sup> with a large purpose-built storage cabin. This area is perfect and offers endless possibilities, maybe a jacuzzi? pergola? sunbathing area or even a roof top pool. The large communal pool is around 20m away and offers plenty of sun-bathing area. To the other end of the street is a well-maintained children's park and football field and a short walk and you find yourself in the heart of this small village. powered by What's Nearby?
