The spectacular Villa 27, designed by the famous architect Carlos Lamas, is located in one of the best areas of the Costa del Sol, La Alqueria, where you can enjoy the good weather and the tranquility and security it offers, but being very close distance from all the life and bustle of Puerto Banús and Marbella. In addition, its slightly elevated position allows this villa to have impressive and paradisiacal panoramic views, both of the sea and the golf with its lake, as well as the mountains and the countryside. This position also provides a lot of privacy, making this magnificent villa the ideal home for the whole family. The villa itself is made up of 7 bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms, with enough space to accommodate the whole family. In addition, it has everything you need for comfort and well-being, with modern open spaces and large indoor and outdoor dining areas, an incredible perfectly furnished kitchen, as well as well-thought-out leisure and entertainment areas, such as a gym, games room with billiards or a bar. Lastly, the villa has a large garage and additional storage space.
