Villa Isabella is a good compromise of modern detached, one storey villa with pool, yet the fenced and established plot of various fruit trees with a short track access plenty of potential and open views from most aspects. Country living with the comforts of a more modern property rather than a Finca or Cortijo. There is a hard roofed, exterior BBQ/ outdoor kitchen area, a fence, 8m x 4m swimming pool, a car port, various storage rooms, a greenhouse, irrigation throughout and extensive flat area around the entire property creating further scope for outdoor living areas. The property has an arched covered terrace at the front, an entrance hall which leads into a comfortable lounge with wood burner and separate kitchen with side door onto terrace. There is currently one bathroom and three bedrooms. With close proximity to Vinuela village and Puente don Manuel this property is interesting with plenty of scope at a realistic price.
