Quality built very large townhouse enjoying a prestigious location on the edge of Alora pueblo. The property has access from two parallel streets. The principal entrance is through a pretty entrance porch leading through into a welcoming hallway which leads through to a very pleasant sitting room offering direct access out to a glorious 25 m<sup>2</sup> central Andalusian patio. On the same level, there is a very spacious formal lounge/dining room which enjoys access to a terrace hosting views over the rooftops of Alora pueblo to the Torcal mountains beyond. The lounge hosts a chimney with wood burning "cassette" style stove and also enjoys direct access directly out to the Andalusian patio. A spacious dining/kitchen with walk-in pantry off and direct access to the Andalusian patio, a double bedroom and a shower room complete the accommodation on this level. A very attractive marble staircase leads to the upper level which hosts a gallery landing leading to double 5 bedrooms including a master suite which enjoys a generous bank of fitted wardrobes, a complete bathroom and direct access to a private terrace which enjoys the morning sun. Two of the bedrooms also
