The Residential is formed by three blocks of two heights, of extremely horizontal proportions, implanted respecting the original topography of the plot favoring the distant views towards the salt flats of Torrevieja. In this way, three 'platforms' are generated at different levels that are connected by gentle slope roads that run through the interior of the urbanization. The architecture and vegetation of the residential are inspired by our Mediterranean tradition from their deepest understanding. That identity will take as fundamental pillars the use of materials from the vernacular tradition and the linking of architecture to a landscape typical of our area. 67 homes of 2 and 3 bedrooms with private gardens and / or solariums form the whole, completing
