This really is a very special property enjoying a wonderful semi-rural location less than 10 minutes drive from all of the amenities of Álorá pueblo. This property really is a bit of an enigma. It is made up of both urban land and rustic land. You enter from a suburban street and yet to the rear of the property you have your very own secret valley and forest elevated above a stream. Set within approx. 10,000m² of immaculately presented established garden, woodland, productive citrus groves and a pecan nut plantation the house extends to 205m² with accommodation distributed over two levels. The main accommodation on the ground floor comprises of a split level living room & dining room which hosts a feature fireplace, 3 double bedrooms which all enjoy fitted wardrobes, a kitchen, a bathroom and 2 other rooms. There is also a very attractive covered porch and a charming Andalusian patio from which one can access another bathroom and 2 storage rooms. An attractive staircase leads to the upper level which offers 2 more large bedroom and a family bathroom. In addition to the main living accommodation this property also includes a garage and various out buildings and
