Individual Bespoke Villas - Local Quality Spanish Builders - Respected Spanish Architects Hot Properties in Spain was established in 2002 and from the start we specialised in country areas as well as the coast. Over the last 20 years we have built up our knowledge and contacts and have a good relationships with many local builders and architects. Our favorite country areas are in North West Murcia and North East Murcia because both offer beautiful countryside with some stunning views yet are not remote or isolated. In each of these areas are small towns and villages with full amenities and expat communities that are not large
