Welcome to Molino Taponero, an enchanting ex-flour mill nestled alongside the serene river Genal near Gaucín. Steeped in history, this remarkable mill boasts elements dating back to Moorish times, making it one of the most intriguing buildings in the area. Privately situated in a picturesque location, this historic gem has been lovingly restored, offering extensive living and workshop space. Embrace the beauty of wild countryside, where sweeping mountain vistas and the gentle melodies of birdsong and the flowing river create a haven of peace. With its character-filled charm and original features, this property presents an opportunity for rural tourism or your own idyllic retreat. The main mill house building houses two independent living spaces, with an additional self-contained guest cottage nestled in the private grounds. Currently, the property hosts a fully operational weaving business, utilizing antique traditional machinery to produce fine quality wool, cashmere, and natural fiber products. The property is offered for sale either without the machinery or to include the weaving business as a going concern subject to negotiation with the current owners. This space occupied
