

ES170842

Town House, Cortijo Blanco, Málaga

1,395,000€

Modern fully renovated beachside townhouse with private pool in sought after location of Cortijo Blanco. Great location, stunning full refurbishment for an awesome townhouse. Walking distance to the beach, across the street from bars, restaurants and supermarket and a stroll away from San Pedro's boulevard. Built on two levels the townhouse has been renovated to a high standard with great attention to details, to create a unique ambiance and style. The living area is distributed over two floors plus basement and garage. On the entrance area you have the large open plan kitchen connecting to the dining and living room with high ceilings, windows opening up to the garden and stone walls showcased. The windows open up to the garden and terrace area, with a private pool, sun deck, outdoor shower and barbecue for al fresco dining. On the top floor of the house you find 4 bedrooms, including the en-suite master bedroom. The Master suite has high ceilings, large windows with view over the pool and a custom made, open walk-in closet in white lacquered oak. This leads into the private en suite bathroom, all in travertine stone. Large double sink, double shower with

