Magnificent villa situated in the magical natural surroundings of La Mairena. The property has breathtaking views towards the mountains, countryside, golf and sea. The villa is built in contemporary style with large windows and high ceilings to maximise the views and bring the beauty of the abundant nature inside your home. From the main entrance you enter a spacious and light hall with lovely views to the pool and garden. There is a lovely living dining area with magnificent views to the mountains. All bedrooms are spacious and have an en-suite bathroom and dressing area. The garage below is spacious enough for five cars or storage space. There is a lift installed to take you up to the ground level and first floor. The covered terrace by the pool area is ideal for outdoor living space. From the solarium you can enjoy magical sunsets. This villa is walking distance to restaurants, a little shop, schools, the gym and a tennis club. The commercial area of Elviria and the beach are only a 10 minutes drive. The airport and Marbella town are both 30 minutes away. Truly beautiful property. Must be seen!
