975,000€

This spectacular manor house dating from 1880 is located in the center historic of Puerto Real, a village near Cadiz at the coast. The house is of Florentine descent and is full of beautiful and interesting details such as handles, doors, tiles, stained glass, lamps etc that make this house an absolute treasure and a one-of-a-kind, a house to be proud to own. Set in a magnificent 900 m2 garden with grotto, you will not find another house of this kind in the Bay of Cadiz. The stunning patio is worthy of a small palace with its high ceilings and stained glass windows. The rooms revolve around this patio: central living room with 25m high ceiling, another living room with chimney, library, dining room where a porch takes you out into the amazing garden. Two large galleries. Upstairs are six bedrooms with three full bathrooms and two old service rooms. Outside is a garage, two storage rooms and large roof terrace. The kitchen with wood fire adjoins the Andalucian patio and an office and has a door out into the garden. A porch from the dining room takes you out to the amazing gardens. Stroll through the magnificent 900 m2 garden with beautiful pond, trees, flower beds, wood
