This very attractive Finca which enjoys a stunning location in the Sabinal area of the countryside just north of Alora pueblo offers an ideal country retreat. Within the 26.800 m2 of olive grove hosting 400 mature olive trees, there is located a 50 m2 cottage. The accommodation is offered in an open plan style offering living room/kitchen with fireplace and sleeping areas. A shower room completes the accommodation. Mains electricity is connected. Water is supplied by two private wells. Within the land, there is also a 7x4 swimming pool from which one can enjoy the stunning views. Although the property enjoys magnificent rural location it has easy access by a quiet country road and short track and is within walking distance to a well-known country restaurant. The owners will consider long term rental.
